

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
CONTACT: Sheriff Mike Downey

USMANI TAKEN INTO CUSTODY IN CHICAGO

January 19, 2019 – Kankakee, IL – The search for a missing inmate that was inadvertently released from the Jerome Combs Detention Center yesterday evening has ended.

At approximately 4:45 pm, Anees Ahmed Usmani (41, from Chicago) was taken into custody without incident by Deputy U.S. Marshals and FBI Agents in the Lincolnwood neighborhood. Usmani, who was being held in Kankakee on federal drug-related offenses on behalf of the U.S. Marshals Service, was released inadvertently approximately 24 hours ago.

“We are continuing to investigate the incident to determine what mistakes were made and why,” said Kankakee County Sheriff Mike Downey. “We are extremely appreciative to all of the local police agencies, the U.S. Marshals Service, the FBI, the US Attorney’s Office, as well as community-at-large, for assisting us in the search for Usmani.”